

The Warranty Group Announces Agreement with Casa Latino Real Estate

RISMEDIA, June 20, 2007-The Warranty Group announced an agreement with Casa Latino Franchise Corporation to offer a comprehensive home warranty program.

The program, named "The Casa Latino Home Protection Plan," will cover multiple dwellings and offer comprehensive coverage on appliances, systems and even heating and air conditioning, without age limitations.

Home warranties often assist with the home selling and buying process, while potentially reducing risk and liability to sales associates and brokers. Homeowners benefit through protection against unexpected expenses related to home repairs.

"This partnership not only provides great benefits to Casa Latino's Clients" said Mike Frosch, president & COO of TWG Home Warranty, Inc. "but also increases brand loyalty and customer satisfaction through our industry-leading marketing and claims administration expertise."

"We're very excited to be offering this new program," said Robb Heering, founder of Casa Latino. "It adds additional value to the customer experience, while further differentiating our successful marketing and customer service processes."

The program will be available on all homes listed by Casa Latino.
